

Are you looking for an excelling and safe New Zealand school for your son?

Francis Douglas Memorial College is the answer.

- ❖ A respected and loved De La Salle school where the teachings of Jesus Christ and St John Baptist de La Salle are woven into our curriculum
- ❖ Government funded identically to state schools for operations and teachers' salaries
- ❖ A Decile 8 school
- ❖ Open to Catholic families, a prescribed quota from non Catholic families and all international students
- ❖ 740 boys from Year 7 to 13 (11 to 18 years) with 120 boys from Year 9 to 13 in our hostel
- ❖ Homestay or hostel accommodation for international students
- ❖ Professional and stable staff teams in school and hostel
- ❖ Blessed with a well facilitated 24 hectare campus in New Plymouth, Taranaki, New Zealand
- ❖ 82 percent student representative involvement in well managed and successful sports teams
- ❖ Superior academic outcomes. 2011 Level 1 NCEA results for eligible students as they appear on the NZQA website are:

As a Catholic college we pride ourselves on a values based education emphasising Faith, Service and Community. We also prize high academic achievement, consistent discipline and individualised pastoral care. Our examination results and retention rates are well ahead of national levels because we cater for individuals' specific academic, pastoral and additional curricular needs.

No one has to come to our school, so we have to do it well!

For more information, or to enrol, please phone our International Student Director – Mrs Margie Smith on +64 6 753 6149 or +64 2 1828 683 or email international@fdmc.school.nz
 More detail is available at www.fdmc.school.nz

We welcome the opportunity to be involved in your son's future at 201 Tukapa St, New Plymouth, New Zealand.

Martin Chamberlain - Principal

